

2023-2024 Low Income Worksheet

STUDENT INFORMATION:

Student's Name _____

Student's ID _____

The income reported on your 2023-2024 FAFSA is unusually low and appears to be insufficient to support the number of people listed in your household. The Financial Aid Office is requesting you to complete this form to clarify your living situation. The Financial Aid Office cannot award any financial aid to you until this form is completed, signed and returned.

Poverty guidelines are published each year by the US Department of Health & Human Services:
<https://aspe.hhs.gov/poverty-guidelines>.

*Independent students must show at least $12,000 in support, as well as $4,400 for each dependent. Dependent students and their parents must show $13,000 in income or support, as well as $4,400 for each additional dependent.

1. 2021 Income and Resources (list all sources):

Source	Student Amount Received in 2021	Parent Amount Received (dependent students only) in 2021
Wages (income from work)
Child Support
Supplemental Benefits with type (e.g. SSI, SNAP)
Other (specify): _____

2. Money received or paid on the student's behalf:

List any money received or paid on the student's or their spouse's behalf (e.g., payment of student's bills) and not reported elsewhere on this form. Enter the total amount of cash support the student received in 2021. For example, if someone is paying rent, utility bills, etc., for the student or gives cash, gift cards, etc., include the amount of that person's contributions unless the person is the student's parent whose information is reported on the student's 2023-2024 FAFSA. Include any distributions to the student from a 529 plan owned by someone other than the student or the student's parents, such as grandparents, aunts, and uncles of the student.

Purpose (Cash, Rent, Food, etc.)	Amount received in 2021	Source

- 3. If parent/student did not receive enough income from the above sources to meet the minimum income requirement*, please explain below how 2021 housing, utility, food, and transportation expenses were being met.
