POLICY STATEMENT:

The College academic year is defined as two standard terms (Fall, Spring) of 15 (fifteen) weeks plus a final examination week. Full time status, during a standard term, is enrollment in 12 credit hours of study or more. This treatment is applied to all students whether or not they participate in Title IV financial aid. A Summer term, if offered, is defined as 10 (ten) weeks inclusive of the final examination period. Full time status during a summer term is enrollment in 12 credit hours of study or more.

Academic programs may have variations to this definition. Any such variations are defined in the corresponding program policy.
