The Federal Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act of 1990, renamed "The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act", (Clery Report) was enacted by Congress and signed into Law in November of 1990. In 1992, and most recently in 2000, Congress significantly amended the law, expanding the reporting criteria.

It requires institutions of higher learning to prepare, publish, and distribute a report concerning campus crime statistics and security policies on an annual basis through appropriate publications, mailings, or computer network to all current students, and employees, and to all prospective students and prospective employees.

In order to comply with provisions of this Federal Law, reports from the College are compiled by the Dean of Finance and Administration and published annually. The report contains crime statistics about certain specified crimes/incidents that have been reported to college administration over the past three years and which occurred either on-campus, in off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by the College, or on public property adjacent to the campus. The report also contains policies and practices pertaining to campus security, crime reporting, alcohol and drugs, victims' assistance programs, student discipline, campus resources, community safety alerts, crime prevention, access to campus facilities as well as personal safety tips. The report encourages the reporting of all crime occurrences. The report tells how and to whom to report crimes, especially sexual assault crimes.

Copies of this report may be obtained in person from the Office of Finance and Administration located on-campus or on-line at the College's web site/Consumer Information tab/Clery Campus Security.
